LOCAL AND PERSONAL

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair tonight; colder in west and south portion. Saturday, fair.

Paul Kempenich arrived in the city from Porla yesterday on a business errand.

Mrs. C. Wise, of Thoreau, spent yesterday in Albuquerque on a Christmas shopping tour.

A party of friends were yesterday entertained by Mrs. John Burdette at a musical period held at the lady's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Abner, of the Albuquerque Indian school, left last night for a visit with relatives at Laguna.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kreilling and daughter, Lizale, of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived in the city last evening for a brief visit.

Beginning at 7:30 this evening the Sunday school of the Congregational church will hold its Christmas exercises in the church.

Ellsworth Ingalls, the attorney, has returned from Las Cruces, where he has been the past few days attending to important legal affairs.

J. G. Sutherland, representing the Armour Packing company, left last night for Denver, where he will spend the Christmas holidays.

L. M. Bentz, for the past ten months clerk at the hardware store of E. J. Post & Co., resigned his situation, and left last night for St. Louis, where he will reside in the future.

There will be a regular meeting of Anoma council No. 1, D. of P., tonight at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present, as important business will be transacted.

The remains of George E. Murphy, who died in this city yesterday afternoon, were shipped to the home in Minnesota this morning. The body was accompanied by a brother.

Services at Temple Albert this evening at 7:45. "The Feast of Lights" begins tonight and lasts one week. Rabbi Kaplan will speak on "The Joy of Giving." Everybody is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Soderstrom, of San Jose, Cal., returned home last evening after a pleasant visit in the city, as the guests of Mrs. Soderstrom's sister, Mrs. George Bassett.

Every one should turn out this evening and welcome the great tragedian Ward to our city. Seldom have the people an opportunity to see and hear one of the world's greatest actors.

Readers of The Evening Citizen will observe by the display advertisement of Frederick Ward in this issue that the price of admission for the best seats is seventy-five cents instead of one dollar.

J. W. Masters, a clerk in the McBrain Furniture company's store, will leave for the east in a few days for the purpose of purchasing a new lot of household goods for the firm he represents.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bryant, at the family home on North Second street yesterday, a son and heir. Mother and child doing well, but the father is reported to be in rather a precarious condition.

All members of local union No. 1219 U. B. of C. and J. of A. are requested to meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening at Borders' undertaking parlors. Business of importance. By order of the president, A. J. Love.

Tonight at the Elks' opera house, Frederick Ward will render the popular and attractive play, "Julius Caesar." Mr. Ward stands today, acknowledged without a peer, as a delineator of Shakespearean characters.

All Elks and their ladies are cordially invited to a social session of the lodge in the lodge rooms immediately after this evening's recital in the opera house. Mr. Ward is specially gifted as an entertainer at such functions.

Ward's present tour in Shakespearean recitals has so far been wonderfully successful. To all students and lovers of England's greatest bard, these recitals are more highly valued than the presentation of his plays by full companies.

Attention, children of Albuquerque. Read the Santa Claus offer on the first page of this issue of The Evening Citizen, and remember the hour and date. Santa Claus' kind offer includes all the little children of the city, rich and poor alike.

The Sunday school of the First Methodist church will hold their Christmas exercises Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the Sunday school rooms. An attractive program will be rendered, including a visit from time honored St. Nicholas. Every one will be made welcome.

The funeral of Mrs. Anna M. Garcia was held at 9 o'clock this morning from the church of The Sacred Heart on South Third street. A large number of relatives and friends attended the services and sent beautiful floral offerings. The remains were laid to rest in Santa Barbara cemetery.

A pair of our Knit Slippers make a dainty and sure to be appreciated Christmas gift for either man or woman. They are well made, with good lamb's wool soles and come either black or red. They cost in Women's sizes, $1.00, and in Men's sizes, $1.50. C. May's Shoe Store, 314 West Railroad avenue.
